MESSAGE
CA AMITABH DUBEY,
CHAIRMAN

My Dear Esteemed Friends

Greetings from Raipur Branch of CIRC of ICAI

I take immense pleasure in sharing my thoughts as Chairman of your Raipur Branch of CIRC of ICAI for the first time. At the outset, I would like to express my heartfelt gratitude to all the members for having reposed their trust and confidence upon me. I would also express my heartfelt gratitude to my friends in the council for their support. I assure you that I will make all efforts to take branch and Profession to the next level.

I always believe that, "The strength of the team is Individual member. The Strength of each member is a team". Therefore, my first priority will be to work with committee, sub committee and members hand in hand.

Many similar conferences and programmes were organised in Raipur Branch, which were attended by our members. In this regards, I also appreciate the great enthusiasm with which the members participated in all these programmes.

In this landmark year, let's resolve to proactively pursue perfection with dedication and to be satisfied with nothing less. We cannot expect the world to be perfect, but we need to look inwards and exact the best from ourselves. Only thus can we justify the many bouquets and compliments that our leaders and members have given us.

As I conclude, Friends, Some people change when they see the light, others when they feel the heat.

Friends, I urge all of you to come with new innovative ideas, advise, guidance and constructive criticism with suggested solutions for keeping the flag of Raipur Branch at higher position.

MESSAGE
YASH AGRAWAL,
VICE CHAIRMAN CICASA

Honestly is the best policy:-

Honesty implies being truthful. Honesty means to develop a practice of speaking truth throughout life. A person who practices Honesty in his/her life, possess strong moral character. An Honest person shows good behavior, always follows rules and regulations, maintain discipline, speak the truth, and is punctual. An honest person is trustworthy as he always tends to speak the truth.

Every one of us must have heard the phrase “Honesty is the Best Policy”. It is indeed a wise phrase. Probably, every child learns this teaching from their parents. This beautiful teaching has been taught since time immemorial. However, its practice has certainly fallen short. People resort to lies very easily nowadays. Furthermore, there is rampant corruption these days. People deceive others by being dishonest. Hence, there is an urgent need for this teaching’s revival. A major component for developing moral character is Honesty. Honesty helps in developing good attributes like kindness, discipline, truthfulness, moral integrity and more. Lying, cheating, lack of trust, steal, greed and other immoral attributes have no part in Honesty. Honest people are sincere, trustworthy and loyal, throughout their life. Honesty is valuable and it is the habit of utmost importance. There are famous quotes, said by a great personality like “Honesty is the first chapter in the book of wisdom”. It holds good due to its ability to build, shape and motivate integral values in one’s life.

First of all, Honesty promotes authenticity. Honesty reflects one’s own feelings and thoughts. Honesty certainly helps people in knowing who you really are. Hence, one must be honest in self-expression. Honesty removes fear from the heart. It makes a person courageous and confident. It certainly takes a huge amount of courage to speak the truth. Speaking truth is a sign of bravery. The one who lies is a coward. Speaking falsehood is a sign of low self-confidence.

Another notable benefit of honesty is maturity. Honesty certainly reflects the maturity of a person. An individual is probably mature if he regularly speaks the truth. Furthermore, a mature person speaks the truth in a non-hurtful way. Honesty strengthens and improves relationships between people. It certainly helps in bringing people together. Most noteworthy, it fosters a connection between individuals. Another terrific advantage of Honesty is the peace of mind. Honesty certainly makes an individual feel free. An honest individual enjoys a light-headed feeling. This is because he does not feel the stress and tension of lying. Furthermore, an honest person does not have to deal with keeping secrets. All of this feels very relaxing.

Honesty enhances the reputation of a person. An honest individual enjoys enormous respect and status in society. Everyone seems to be fond of such a person. Furthermore, a truthful person can easily generate trust with other people.

Importance of Honesty in Life:

Honesty plays an important role in everyone's life and it is a character which is visible with open eyes like an open book. Having considered as an Honest person, by society is one of the best compliment one can dream of in his/her entire life. It is the real character a person earns in life by being sincere and dedicated towards it. Lack of honesty in society is doom. It is due to the lack of proper interpersonal relationship between parents-children and students-teachers. Honesty is a practice which is built slowly and patiently, firstly at home and then school. Hence home and school are the best places for a child to develop Honesty since his/her growing times.

Home and school are the places where a child learns moral ethics. Thus, the education system should ensure to include some essential habits and practices to keep a child close to morality. Children must be instructed right from the beginning and their childhood to practice honesty. Youths of any country are the future of that country so they should give better opportunities to develop moral character so that they can lead their country in a better way.

For all human problems, Honesty is the ultimate solution. Corruption and various problems are everywhere in society. It is because of the decreasing number of honest people. In today's fast and competitive world, we have forgotten about moral and integral ethics. It is very important and necessary for us to rethink and remodel, that we bring the honesty back in society so that everything goes in a natural manner.

Yash Agrawal

DEALING ANXIETY

Sometimes I can't find the words
That fill my messy head.
Can't find the effort to smile
Or get out of my silly old bed.

The world just sometimes feels like
I don't fit and don't belong,
And even when I make the effort,
A smile just doesn't last long.

I could pretend with all my might
That I am the happiest I can be.
Surrounded by the world, it seems
Lonelier I couldn't be.

Not sure what may be the answer.
Not sure if I'm really keen
To spend another day here,
Living this dreadful dream.

But I must find some courage,
Light a fire inside my heart
And find a love for life again,
And I know where I shall start.

I'll walk among the forest
And feel the crisp sea breeze
And lay among the meadow
And listen to all the bees.

I'll figure out the mayhem
And gaze at all the stars
And dance at every sunset
With a smile inside my heart.

REMINISCENCES OF MY SCHOOL DAYS

Nostalgia often plunges me into the memory lane where my mind feels free to wander and then dive into the sea of memories. It comes out with invaluable pearls of reminiscences of my school days. These pearls are undoubtedly the most treasured ones.

As ours was a missionary school, we would begin our day with the lord's prayer, our heads would bow down in obeisance to the almighty with closed eyes and joined hands. There was one teacher whose behaviour during the assembly would make her stand apart from others. Just before the beginning of the assembly, she would cover her head with her saree and would not let it off till the assembly concluded.

Her attitude during the morning assembly resulted in different interpretations from me over the years. During my early years in school, it was just a matter of curiosity which, with maturity and better understanding, was superseded by deep respect for the art teacher, Mrs. Kazmi. Now the realization had dawned upon me that the head was covered in reverence to God. Her head would bow in same reverence to Christ as it would before Allah. Her veneration for Christ was no less than it was for Allah.

A year passed by after I left school. Then one day, I read the sad news of her death in one of the leading national dailies. My eyes moistened with tears but my heart welled up with mingled emotions of pride and respect for the Nobel, departed soul. She was my art teacher but unknowingly, she had taught me a great moral lesson-"Respect All Religions"- a lesson which no book of moral science could ever teach.

MY DREAM

FULL OF IMAGINATION
NOT A SINGLE ASPECTS OF MY DREAM ,
SEEMS TO BE REAL
NOT JUST TOUGH,
SEEMS TO BE TOUGHEST
HOLDING EACH DAY
BREATHING HEAVILY
SOMETIMES PALE
SOMETIMES SICK
MANY TIMES TIRED
STILL PUTTING EFFORTS
EFFORTS THAT ALWAYS DEMAND PERSEVERENCE
PERPETUAL EFFORTS
WITHOUT ANY RESULTS
FAILING EVERYTIME AND
STARTING ONCE AGAIN
IT'S NOT THAT'S EASY
AS IT SEEMS TO OTHERS
I AM SHATTERED
I AM AFRAID
I AM LOST
WANDERING AND WANDEERING
WHenever I LOSE
A CONTROVERSY BETWEEN
MY HEART AND MY BRAIN
SHALL I GO ON?
OR SHALL I STOP
CHASING DREAMS ISN'T EASY
MAKING MY DREAMS
THE REALITY OF MY LIFE ISN'T EASY
I WILL NOT END THIS HERE
MY DREAMS,
FULL OF IMAGINATION
EACH ASPECT OF MY DREAMS
WILL BE MY REALITY
